The pictures on the poster represent a typical day for elementary school pupils in the form of a comic. The pictures don’t tell the whole story. What they do show is that the school day begins at home and ends at home. Parents play a very important role.
For further explanation of the poster visit www.mk.niedersachsen.de.